

4-5 March 2019

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
CLAIMING CIVIC SPACE TOGETHER
Joint Strategies to Ensure Development and Humanitarian Action

INVITATION

Global Focus, members and partners are excited to invite civil society actors, governments and the private sector from around the world to the two-day international conference: "Claiming Civic Space Together: Joint Strategies to Ensure Development and Humanitarian Action" on 4-5 March 2019 in Copenhagen.

Aim: The aim of the conference is to decide on tangible strategies together to protect and enhance civic space globally across themes, movements and sectors.

Themes: Participants can choose to follow two different thematic tracks, linking civic space to various aspects of the SDG agenda and double layers of restrictions for certain groups,

- #MediaToo – Shrinking Space for Independent Media and Freedom of Expression
- Private Sector and Civic Space
- How to Engage with Religious Actors to Build and Defend Civic Space
- Gender and LGBTIQ+ Specific Challenges and Responses
- Children and Young People as Civic Actors
- Civic Space in Humanitarian Action
- Civic Space for Environmental and Indigenous Activists
- Role of National Human Rights Institutes

Register now by following this link.

Venue: GAME, Enghavevej 82D, 2450 Copenhagen SV, Denmark.

For more information, please contact, Sara Katrine Brandt, Civil Society Advisor at Global Focus, at sb@globaltfokus.dk.

