Contents

Introduction..........................................................3

   - Clyde Holding - Minister of Aboriginal Affairs -
     "Australian Government recognises prior occupation and ownership of Australia by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People". (Speech to UN Working Group on Indigenous Populations, August, 1984).............20
   - Commonwealth's preferred National Aboriginal Land Rights Model..................................................30

2. The Aboriginal Response........................................46
   - Legal Opinion of the Preferred Rights Model............47
   - Bob Riley (Chairman of NAC)  "It is our lives and futures which are at stake"...............................58
   - Pat Dodson "We will not give up our struggle for recognition, independence and dignity". (Co-ordinator of Federation of Land Councils' Speech to National Press Club)..................................................70

3. Protest and Response............................................96
   - IWGIA - Information and Action Report Australia
     24/5/85 and Government Response..........................97
   - Charles Perkin "The Australian Government has done much to recognise and meet the needs of its Aboriginal Citizens" (Statement to UN Working Group 1985)....107
   - Federation of Land Councils "Australian Government is merely perpetuating past colonial practices"
     (PLC Statement to UN Working Group)....................120

4. Pastoral and Mining Interests................................135
   - Land Rights. Why Hawke's model has no backing.
     By John Altiman and Michael Dillon.......................137
   - The People the Land Rights Act forgot.
     From The Inkerrenke Outstation Resource Service......152
   - Aboriginal Land Council attitudes to Mining Negotiations. By Bruce Donald.................................163

5. Land Rights and Self Determination - A Comparative View..........................................................181
   - Land Rights and Customary Law - A Comparative Analysis. By Brad Morse......................................183

Conclusion.........................................................209
   - NAC Minimum Expectations of Land Rights Legislation
   - February 1985..............................................211
   - National Federation of Land Councils - Land Rights
     Major Principles........................................213